

Quota Points Game

Some news from the Quota Points team: First, we want to thank three long-term members of the Quota Points coordination team who are stepping down from their positions: Ron Lang, Ron Boehm, and Neil Hamje. They have been running this great game for upwards of ten years. We are losing thirty plus years of experience as these great men move on. When you see them, be sure to thank them for their efforts over the years. They richly deserve our gratitude.

We have reconstituted the team with new members. Here is the new line-up. On the year-round side, we have: John Sedenquist and Jim Lamy, who have been on the team for about a year; new team members Gary Cole, Denny Woods, Bill Seiler, and Jim Heotis (to the extent that he can juggle both Quota Points and SunChasers); and snow birds Rick Smith, Tim Peat and Dave Stock. And a shout out to Geoff Hannell, who runs the "MGA" website.

We will be striving to maintain the high level of competence that you have grown accustomed to. Bear with us should we have some start-up problems.
